The following clipping from "Vogue" tells something about the novel by Fanny Heaslip Lea, who is better known in Honolulu as Mrs. H. P. Agee:

Hammock Novels. Jaconetta Stores, by Fannie Heaslip Lea, whose abort novel, "Quick sends," gave promise of riper accomplishments, is a volume of sketchy little romances woven about a delightfully impossible Southern girl, one of those professional heart-breakers at whose hands so many Southerners accept death without a murmur. Of course such a girl as Jaconetta never was on land or sea. Those, however, who follow her fortunes through these clever pages care no whit for the question of her existence in time and space, but accept her for the roughish person she is. Properly constituted women will disapprove of her, but she will obtain the suffrage of all men, and that is the object for which she was created.

Admiral Ross and Miss Koss were the complimented guests at a dinner given on Sunday evening by Captain and Mrs. Case at the Courtland. The color scheme for the decorations was yellow, a large basket tied with yellow tulle and filled with the drooping golden shower formed the attractive centerpiece. The cards marking the place of each guest were hand-painted yellow butterflies. Covers were laid for Admiral Ross, Miss Ross, General and Mrs. M. M. Macomb, Major and Mrs. Cheatham, Mr. and Mrs. John Gamble, Captain and Mrs. Game, Mr. Denman, Miss Bostrom, Miss Case, Mr. Carothers, Mr. Bostrom and Captain and Mrs. Case.

Mrs. S. G. Wilder's Luncheon. Mrs. Samuel Wilder was hostess at an informal luncheon on Friday at her home on Nuuanu avenue. Covers were laid for six including Miss Elizabeth Carter, Miss Nora Swamy, Miss Rosamond Swamy, Miss Hilda von Holt, Miss Mary von Holt and Mrs. Wilder.

Oriental Cream

OR MAGICAL BEAUTIFIER
An Indispensable and Necessary
Article for Particular Women who Desire to Retain a Youthful Appearance.

Every woman owes it to herself and loved ones to retain the charm of youth nature has bestowed upon her. For over half a century this article has been used by actresses, singers and women of fashion. It renders the skin like the softness of velvet leaving it clear and pearly white and is highly desirable when preparing for daily or evening attire. As it is a liquid and non-greasy preparation, it remains unnoticed. When attending dances, balls or other entertainments, it prevents a greasy appearance of the complexion caused by the skin becoming heated.

Gouraud's Oriental Cream cures skin diseases and relieves Sunburn. Removes Tan, Pimples, Blackheads, Moth Patches, Rash, Freckles and Vulgar Blemishes.

Yellow and Muddy skin, giving a delicately clear and refined complexion which every woman desires.

No. 10 For sale by Druggists and Fancy Goods Dealers.
